

Phil Reid

B. Eng, MBA, PMP, PRINCE2, MSP, GAICD, ITIL

Experience

Philip has over 20 years experience working in the IT & Telecommunications industry in the UK, US, Asia and Australia.

Philip has held senior management roles at a number of organisations and his skills have been utilised to lead and establish new business operations in Australia and Asia. He has also led product developments for Business and Consumer Customers and has been engaged as a Transformation Program Manager, Bid Manager and Strategic Initiative Manager.

Business Expertise

- Setup of new business operations
- IT & Telecommunications strategic and operational planning
- Program and Project Management
- Leadership of Transition Programs
- Management of Strategic Initiatives
- New product development
- Bid and RFP Management
- Change management
- Team leadership and development
- Team building and motivational skills

Major Assignments

SingTel Optus – Transformation Program Manager. Responsible for the Program design, development and implementation of a Program to target and move the business customer base to a shared IP infrastructure

St George Bank – As the Telecommunications Program Manager, was engaged to co-ordinate all telecommunications projects across the bank nationally.

Cable & Wireless - Set up of business operations in Australia, Hong Kong and Singapore including the go-to-market plan, selecting and building the Sales, marketing and operations teams, and market launch.

Leadership of a team of consultants who were awarded a US$300M global outsource contract.

Contact Details

For further information please contact Philip Reid on:

+61 2 9696 0700 or +61 421 277766

philip@wired-consulting.com.au