

Philip Reid

B. Eng, MBA, PMP[®], PRINCE2[®], MSP[®], GAICD, ITIL[™]

Experience

Philip is a PRINCE2[®] Practitioner, MSP[®] Advanced Practitioner, a PPM Registered Consultant and is qualified to undertake P3M3[®] assessments. He has over 20 years experience working in Business and IT in the UK, US, Asia and Australia.

Philip has held senior management roles at a number of organisations and his Programme and Project management skills have been utilised to establish, develop, improve and manage business operations in Australia and Asia. He has also undertaken a number of P3M3[®] assessments for Federal Government agencies under the AGIMO P3M3[®] initiative.

Business Expertise

- Program and Project Management
- Leadership of transformation Programs
- Management of Strategic Initiatives
- Change management
- Team leadership and development
- Team building and motivational skills
- Setup of new business operations
- IT & Telecommunications strategic and operational planning
- New product development
- Bid and RFP Management
- MSP[®] Registered Consultant
- PRINCE2[®] Registered Consultant
- P3M3[®] Accredited Consultant

Major Assignments

JP Morgan – Programme Manager for the development of operational risk, process and systems improvements using MSP[®] principles.

Federal Court of Australia – Lead assessor for verified P3M3[®] assessment.

Westpac Banking Corporation – Program Manager. Responsible for the Program for the development of processes and systems to provide seamless integration between St George and Westpac Organisations.

SingTel Optus – Transformation Program Manager. Responsible for the Program design, development and implementation of a Program to target and move the business customer base to a shared IP infrastructure.

Cable & Wireless - Set up of business operations in Australia, Hong Kong and Singapore including the go-to-market plan, selecting and building the Sales, marketing and operations teams, and market launch.

Contact Details

For further information please contact Philip Reid on:

+61 1300 00 2000

philip@wiredconsulting.com